What is this product?

Type: Units of AMUNDI BUY & WATCH HIGH YIELD 2028, a UCITS (Undertaking for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities), established in the form of an FCP.

Term: This Fund matures on 31/01/2028. The Management Company may dissolve the Fund by means of liquidation or merger with another fund in accordance with legal requirements.

AMF classification: Bonds & debt securities

Objectives: By subscribing to AMUNDI BUY & WATCH HIGH YIELD 2028, you are investing in high-yield bonds from private and public issuers primarily based in the OECD area.

Amundi Buy & Watch High Yield 2028 aims, over its recommended investment period and after taking ongoing charges into account, to offer a performance at maturity corresponding to a portfolio initially made up of High Yield corporate bonds (speculative securities for which the risk of issuer default is higher), primarily issued by companies in the OECD area. The portfolio mainly contains securities with maturities equal to or shorter than the duration of the investment period, which is five years from the creation of the Fund. Upon maturity, subject to AMF approval and having notified the unitholders, the Management Company shall decide, based on the market situation, to either liquidate the Fund or to reinvest in bonds.

The holding strategy is a fixed-term strategy, without a benchmark, that aims to offer regular coupons to investors through a diversified portfolio.

The objective is based on the materialisation of market assumptions determined by the Management Company. In no way does it constitute a promise of yield or performance of the UCI. It takes into account the estimated default risk, the cost of hedging and management charges.

To achieve this, the management team shall select bonds and negotiable debt securities from public and private issuers primarily based in the OECD area with a maturity close to that of the Fund, i.e. five years. The management team therefore selects bonds to keep in the portfolio until the Fund matures, i.e. 31 January 2028.

These securities shall be selected at management's discretion in accordance with the management company's internal credit risk monitoring policy. Management shall selectively invest in High Yield securities with a rating ranging from BB+ to D on the rating scale of Standard & Poor's and/or Fitch and/or Ba1 to C according to Moody's and/or deemed equivalent by the Management Company.

The sensitivity of the Fund is between 0 and 6. It will be close to 6 at the beginning of each investment period before decreasing to close to 0 by the end of each period.

Management may take positions to hedge the portfolio against certain risks (interest rate, credit, currency) or to seek exposure to interest rate and credit risk. In this context, management may adopt strategies aimed primarily at anticipating or protecting the UCI against the risk of default of one or more issuers, or exposing the portfolio to the credit risks of one or more issuers. These strategies will be implemented in particular through the buying or selling of protection in the form of single-name or index (iTraxx or CDX) Credit Default Swaps. The UCI may use securities incorporating derivatives in accordance with the objective of the Fund, the strategy and the Management Company's internal credit risk monitoring policy.

The Fund is subject to residual currency risk.

The UCI is managed on an active and discretionary basis. It is not managed in reference to an index.

Intended retail investors: This product is intended for investors, with a basic knowledge of and no or limited experience of investing in funds, seeking to increase the value of their investment and to receive income over the recommended holding period and who are prepared to take on a high level of risk to their original capital.

The product is not open to residents of the United States of America/"U.S. Person" (the definition of "U.S. Person" is available on the Management Company's website www.amundi.fr and/or in the prospectus).

Redemption and transaction: Units may be sold (redeemed) as stated in the prospectus at the respective dealing price (net asset value). Further details are provided in the AMUNDI BUY & WATCH HIGH YIELD 2028 prospectus.

Distribution Policy: As this is a non-distributing unit class, investment income is reinvested.

What happens if Amundi Asset Management is unable to pay out?

The product is a co-ownership of financial instruments and deposits separate from the Management Company. In the event of default by the Management Company, the assets of the product held by the depositary will not be affected. In the event of default by the depositary, the risk of financial loss to the product is mitigated due to the legal segregation of the depositary's assets from those of the product.

What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, and how long you hold the product. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- in the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.
- EUR 10,000 is invested.
