ROSENBERG EQUITIES

AXA Rosenberg All Country Asia Pacific Ex-Japan Small Cap Alpha Fund

A Sub-Fund of AXA Rosenberg Equity Alpha Trust

Unit: AXA Rosenberg All Country Asia Pacific Ex-Japan Small Cap Alpha Fund A Capitalisation EUR (ISIN: IE00BD008N99)

This Sub-Fund is managed by AXA Rosenberg Management Ireland Limited, part of the AXA Group

Objective and Investment Policy

Investment Objective

The aim of the Sub-Fund is to provide long-term capital growth above that of the MSCI AC Asia Pacific ex-Japan Small Cap Index on a rolling three year basis.

The MSCI AC Asia Pacific ex-Japan Small Cap Index is designed to measure the performance of shares of smaller companies listed on the main stock exchanges of developed and emerging market countries in the Asia Pacific region (excluding Japan). The index's composition is available on www.msci.com.

Investment Policy

The Sub-Fund invests primarily in shares of smaller companies listed on the main stock exchanges of developed and emerging market countries in the Asia Pacific region (excluding Japan). The fund manager uses a proprietary systematic stock selection model to identify shares of companies that it believes to be attractive investment opportunities, relative to their industry peers, based on analysis of their valuation and earnings prospects. From these shares, the fund manager seeks to construct a portfolio with the best expected risk/return trade off to meet the Fund's objective. The fund manager considers financial information as well as environmental, social and governance (ESG) information in determining the best expected risk/return trade off. In constructing the Sub-Fund's portfolio, the fund manager references the index which means that, while the fund manager has discretion to select the investments for the Sub-Fund, the Sub-Fund's divergence from the index is controlled. The fund manager may lend shares held by the Sub-Fund to third parties to generate additional income for the Sub-Fund.

Investment Horizon

This Fund may not be suitable for investors who plan to withdraw their contribution within 5 years.

Income

Net income earned by the Sub-Fund is accumulated and reinvested on behalf of the Unitholders holding accumulation type unit classes.

Net income earned by the Sub-Fund may be declared and paid out to Unitholders holding distributing type unit classes, in line with the distribution policy set-out in the Prospectus.

Sub-Fund Currency

The reference currency of the Sub-Fund is USD.

Processing of subscription and redemption orders

The subscription, conversion or redemption orders must be received by the Registrar and Transfer Agent, no later than 1 p.m. Irish time one business day before the relevant Dealing (business) Day. Orders will be processed at the Net Asset Value calculated for that Dealing Day.

Please note that there may be additional processing time if your order is placed via intermediaries such as platforms, financial advisors or distributors.

The Net Asset Value of this Sub-Fund is calculated on a daily basis.

Minimum initial investment: EUR 100,000

Minimum subsequent investment: EUR 5,000

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk category is calculated using historical performance data and may not be a reliable indicator of the Sub-Fund's future risk profile.

The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

Why is this Sub-Fund in this category?

The capital of the Sub-Fund is not guaranteed. The Sub-Fund is invested in financial markets and uses techniques and instruments which are subject to some levels of variation, which may result in gains or losses.

Additional Risks

Emerging market Risks: emerging markets or less developed countries may face more political, economic or structural challenges than developed countries. As a result, investments in such countries may cause greater fluctuations in the Sub-Fund's value than investments in more developed countries. In addition the reliability of trading, settlement and custody systems in some emerging market countries may not be equal to more developed countries and result in greater operational and liquidity risk.

Liquidity Risk: some investments may trade infrequently and in small volumes. As a result the fund manager may not be able to sell at a preferred time or volume or at a price close to the last quoted valuation. The fund manager may be forced to sell a number of such investments as a result of a large redemption of units in the Sub-Fund. Depending on market conditions, this could lead to a significant drop in the Sub-Fund's value and in extreme circumstances lead the Sub-Fund to be unable to meet its redemptions.

Operational Risk: the Sub-Fund is subject to the risk of loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people or systems or those of third parties such as those responsible for the custody of the Sub-Fund's assets.

Risk linked to Method and Model: attention is drawn to the fact that the Sub-Fund's strategy is based on the utilisation of a proprietary share selection model. The effectiveness of the model is not guaranteed and the utilisation of the model may not result in the investment objective being met.

Stock Lending: the Sub-Fund may enter into securities lending agreements and as a result be subject to increased counterparty risk. Should the counterparty fail financially, the securities received will be called upon. However in the event of significant market volatility at the time of default the value of those securities received could fall below the value of the lent securities. In this instance the manager would not have sufficient cash to purchase the equivalent value of securities lent out which could result in a significant negative impact on the Sub-Fund's value.

Further explanation of the risks associated with an investment in this Sub-Fund can be found in the prospectus.
