Frontier Markets Fund, a sub fund of Coeli SICAV I

Share Class: I (USD)
ISIN: LU1028962469

Management Company:
Waystone Management Company (lux) S.A.

Objective & Investment Policy

Coeli SICAV I - Frontier Markets Fund aims to achieve a competitive return investing in stock markets of Frontier Markets being markets of less developed countries than emerging markets.

This Sub-Fund mainly invests directly and indirectly (i.e. funds, exchange traded funds ("ETFs"), warrants and other derivatives) in equities and equity linked securities. Up to 30 % the Sub-Fund's net assets may also be invested in equities listed outside Frontier Markets who benefits of the Frontier Markets demand.

The Sub-Fund is authorized to use such financial techniques and instruments i.e. for the purpose of hedging and/or efficient management of the portfolio.

Portfolio transaction costs will have a material impact on performance and these costs are paid from the assets of the Sub-Fund in addition to the charges set out in section "Charges for this Sub-Fund". Investments in Frontier Markets are associated with higher transaction costs than developed markets.

The Sub-Fund is managed actively and uses the MSCI Frontier Markets Index as a universe to select securities from and to compare performances. The deviation of the portfolio composition of the Sub-Fund compared to the benchmark is significant.

The sub-fund qualifies as an Article 8 product under SFDR since its investment strategy contains ESG objectives. More information about the ESG characteristics applied is available upon request or online at the website of the Investment Manager: <https://coeli.com/our-funds/sustainability/>.

The Sub-Fund does not distribute dividends. All income is reinvested in the Sub-Fund.

The Sub-Fund will be open for subscriptions and redemptions all official Luxembourg working days.

Recommendation: This Sub-Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within five years.

Risk & Reward Profile

About the indicator: The synthetic risk/reward indicator shows the relationship between risk and potential reward at an investment in the Sub-Fund. The synthetic indicator is based on the fluctuations in the Sub-Fund's value over the past five years. Where a full returns history is unavailable the indicator is based on relevant benchmark.

About the Sub-Fund: The Sub-Fund belongs to category 5. This means that the Sub-Fund is subject to medium risk in respect of rises and falls in value. Category 1 does not mean that the Sub-Fund is a risk-free investment. The Sub-Fund may over time shift to both the right and the left side of the scale. It is because the synthetic indicator is based on historical data which is not a guarantee for future risk/reward.

The Sub-Fund invests in companies listed in markets which generally are characterized by high risk, but also potentially high return. The synthetic indicator mainly reflects the rises and falls of the equities the Sub-Fund has invested in.

Risks not captured by the indicator: Investors in the Sub-Fund need to take the following risk factors into particular consideration:

Liquidity risk - The risk that the Sub-Fund may not be able to timely liquidate its holdings at a reasonable price.

Counterparty risk - The insolvency of any institutions providing services such as safekeeping of assets or acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments, may expose the Sub-Fund to financial loss.

Frontier Markets risk - Investments in non-developed countries are exposed to certain risks such as political uncertainty, settlement risks, accounting standards risks, illiquidity of investments and sudden exchange rates movements.

Currency markets risk - The Sub-Fund is investing its assets in the international currency markets and is therefore exposed both to the increased opportunity and the increased risk of loss resulting from changes in exchange rates.

The above mentioned list of risk factors is not exhaustive. Other factors can influence the pricing of the underlying securities and therefore this Sub-Fund.
