What is this product?

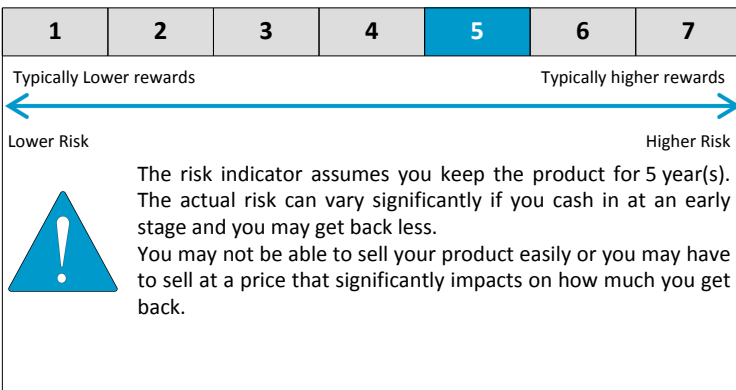

Type: This investment fund is a sub-Fund of Legal & General UCITS ETF Plc (the "Company"), an umbrella investment company with variable capital and segregated liability between Funds. The Fund is authorised in Ireland and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland.

Term: There is no fixed maturity date.

Objectives: The Fund is a passively managed exchange traded Fund that aims to track the performance of the MSCI China A Onshore Index (the "Index"), subject to the deduction of the ongoing charges and other costs associated with operating the Fund. Shares in this Share Class (the "Shares") are denominated in USD and can be bought and sold on stock exchanges by ordinary investors using an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker). In normal circumstances, only Authorised Participants may buy and sell Shares directly with the Company. Authorised Participants may redeem their Shares on demand in accordance with the "Dealing Timetable" published on <http://www.lgim.com>. The Index is comprised of "A shares" issued by large and medium-sized companies domiciled in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") which are publically traded on the Shanghai and Shenzhen stock exchanges. A company is only eligible for inclusion in the Index if it is of a sufficient size (determined by reference to (1) the total market value of the company and (2) the proportion of its A shares that is deemed to be available for purchase in the public equity markets in the PRC, i.e. not subject to any restrictions or strategic ownership) and if its A shares are sufficiently "liquid" (a measure of how actively they are traded). Within the Index, each company is then weighted according to its relative size. The Fund will primarily invest in a representative sample of the companies contained in the Index whose risk and performance characteristics closely resemble that of the Index as a whole. The Fund may also invest in (1) companies that are not constituents of the Index that have similar risk and performance characteristics to the companies contained in the Index and (2) financial derivative instruments. This Share Class does not intend to pay dividends. Any income which may result from the Fund's investments will be reinvested into the Fund. The depositary of the Fund is the Bank of New York Mellon SA/NV, Dublin Branch. Further information about the Fund and the share class can be obtained from the Company's prospectus and the annual and semi-annual reports, which are available, in addition to the latest prices for the unit class and details of any other unit classes, free of charge at: www.lgim.com.

Intended retail investor: The Fund is designed for investors: (1) looking to grow their money in an investment which can form part of their existing savings portfolio; and (2) understand (and are able to bear) the risks associated with direct investment in mainland China, the levels of volatility associated with emerging market equities and the risk of losing their entire investment. Although investors can take their money out at any time, the Fund may not be appropriate for those who plan to withdraw their money within five years. The Fund is not designed for investors who cannot afford more than a minimal loss of their investment.

What is the risk and what could I get in return?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as class 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class.

The Fund's performance may be impacted by any gradual and/or sudden changes to any applicable rules, laws, regulations, economic policies and political environment in China and any governmental intervention which may affect the Fund's rights over its investments.

The value of the Fund may be affected by risks not in the SRI, including failure of a counterparty, custodian, issuer or index provider and derivative use.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

Be aware of currency risk. You may receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

The Fund is not covered by an investor compensation scheme.

Favourable scenario: 02/2016 to 02/2021

This table shows the money you could get back over the next 5 year(s), under different scenarios, assuming that you invest 10,000.00 USD.

The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product with input from benchmark(s)/proxy over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

Market developments in the future cannot be accurately predicted. The scenarios shown are only an indication of some of the possible outcomes based on recent returns. Actual returns could be lower.

What happens if LGIM Managers (Europe) Limited is unable to pay out?

If LGIM Managers (Europe) Limited defaults, investors in the Fund would not face any financial losses. However, the value of an investment and any income taken from it is not guaranteed and can go down as well as up, you may not get back the amount you originally invested. The fund is not covered by an investor compensation scheme.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for the holding period(s). They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest 10,000.00 USD. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest and how long you hold the product. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.

These figures include the maximum distribution fee that the person selling you the product may charge. This person will inform you of the actual distribution fee.

We have assumed:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0 % annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.

- USD 10,000/1,000 per year is invested.

Investment USD 10,000	If you cash in after 1 year	If you cash in after 5 years
Total costs	89.00 USD	620.00 USD
Impact on return (RIY) per year	0.89%	0.95%

Composition of costs

The table below shows:

- The impact each year of the different types of costs on the investment return you might get at the end of the recommended holding period.
- What the different cost categories mean.

Incidental costs taken under specific conditions
Performance fees and carried interest	0.00% There is no performance fee for this product.	0.00 USD

How long should I hold it and can I take my money out early?

An investor can hold their investment for any time period but 5 year(s) is recommended.

The recommended holding period of 5 years has been selected for illustrative purposes only. Equity investments should be seen as long-term investments however there is no minimum (or maximum) holding period for the Shares. The Shares can be sold by ordinary investors using an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker) when the markets on which they trade are open. An intermediary is likely to apply a commission to purchases and sales.

The above mentioned period has been defined in accordance to the product characteristics.

How can I complain?

Complaints can be made in writing to complaints@lgim.com or to LGIM Managers (Europe) Ltd, 70 Sir John Rogerson's Quay, Dublin 2, DO2 R296, Ireland.
