FE Amundi SICAV – Annual Report Management Commentary (Reflective of February 28, 2022 to February 28, 2023)FIRST EAGLE AMUNDI - INTERNATIONAL FUND

Markets were relatively strong in Q4 2022 and for the first month of 2023, taking some of the sting off what was a painful 2022 across most investment assets. By February 2023, global markets relinquished some of their early 2023 gains as inflation concerns once again forced investors to rethink rate expectations. Overall, the fiscal year was ruled by volatility and uncertainty across the board in markets.

Meanwhile, we believe the market and macroeconomic dynamics we witnessed in 2022 generally reflected a relatively orderly transition from an environment characterized by a generational-low cost of capital to one in which money again has a price. Repressed interest rates helped support valuations for securities with expected cash flows far into the future, contributing to a prolonged period of outperformance by growth stocks at the expense of value stocks focused on the free cash flow in the here and now. The winds changed in 2022 as central banks worldwide sought to tame inflation, however, and the resulting higher discount rates explained much of the drop in securities dependent on future cash flows.

While equities were weak across the board in 2022, lower-valuation stocks turned the tables on growth names; the MSCI World Value Index outperformed its growth analog by more than 2,250 basis points for the year.¹ Geographically, non-US stocks held the edge in 2022, an infrequent occurrence during the post-global financial crisis period. Even still, the price ratio of non-US stocks to US names currently remains at lows not seen in many decades, and we think one ought to be open minded in such an environment, especially given the number of quality businesses that exist outside the US.

Meaningfully positive real interest rates also fueled a selloff across the fixed income complex, with duration-sensitive issues particularly challenged. Corporate bonds fared better, but investment grade and high yield debt still delivered double-digit losses. On the flip side of this bond rout was that many fixed income securities now offer investors what we consider reasonable yields, freeing them from the idea that there is no alternative to equities. Caution does seem warranted in credit, however, especially if the Fed's inflation-fighting fervor tips the economy into recession. Inflation alone would weigh on margins and pressure credit metrics; inflation plus slow economic growth would amplify these effects. Conditions could get truly messy if markets were to lose faith in the Fed's ability to control inflation and the "bond vigilantes" stepped in to drive up rates.

The price of gold bullion appreciated during the fourth quarter as real and nominal interest rates eased on expectations that the Fed was prepared to slow its pace of rate hikes and potentially pause or pivot in 2023. Gold was further supported by weakness in the dollar, which pulled back sharply from the multidecade highs set in September as interest rate differentials with key trading partners like the euro zone began to narrow. The ongoing war between Ukraine and Russia remained a wildcard and thus another tailwind for the metal. With most financial assets broadly lower for full-year 2022, gold declined only about 28 basis points and ably served its purpose as a potential hedge in a very challenging environment.² Meanwhile, after three straight months of gains, gold fell in February 2023 as it faced headwinds with the US dollar appreciating during the last month of the fiscal year.

With the above as a backdrop, FEAMIF returned -4.15% (USD, AUC share class) from February 28, 2022 to February 28, 2023. Our equity holdings detracted from performance, while gold-related securities were also a headwind, and cash acted as a small tailwind. Energy & consumer discretionary were the only equity sectors to make a positive contribution to absolute performance during the period while communication services, real estate and materials were the largest detractors. Among individual stocks, the Fund's top contributors included Exxon Mobil, Schlumberger, Oracle, NOV and FEMSA. The largest detractors included Alphabet, Comcast, Meta Platforms, Teradata and Douglas Emmett.

We established 11 new equity positions between end of February 2022 and end of February 2023: 8 based in North America (including consumer discretionary, consumer staples, financials, health care, information technology and materials companies) and 3 in Europe (including consumer staples and health care companies). We also increased our exposure to 22 stocks. We exited 8 equity positions — Alleghany (was fully acquired by a company we already have in the portfolio, Berkshire Hathaway), BAE Systems (was liquidated due to ESG considerations), Embeckta, Euroapi, Hoya and Olympus (were liquidated when the share price reached our estimate of the company's "intrinsic value"), Scotts Miracle-Gro (the company had proven to be less resilient than we thought it was over time; we exited when shares reflected the downward revision of intrinsic value accordingly) and Teradata (we fully liquidated the position when the share price reached the downward revision of our estimate of the company's intrinsic value) — and reduced our holdings in 70 other stocks.

We were pleased with the markets' relatively orderly demeanor in 2022, as the resumption of more rational behaviors appeared to support our style of value investing. We are currently somewhat unsettled by their apparent disconnect with the many risks that persist, however, especially as central bank tightening efforts continue to transmit to all nodes of the economy with a lag.

In response to top-down concerns, the Global Value team seeks to build resilience in our portfolios from the bottom up, focusing on incremental decisions we expect will in aggregate make portfolio performance better over time. This has meant seeking companies with track records of stability in the face of market volatility and macroeconomic weakness, with pricing power that can be exploited in inflationary environments, with scarce assets and strong capital structures that may serve as a buffer against rising interest rates, and with management teams whose prudence and predictability stands in contrast with the uncertain path of federal policy makers. This also has meant investing in such companies only when we can do so at what we believe to be "margin of safety" to our estimate of intrinsic value.

First Eagle defines "margin of safety" as the difference between a company's market price and our estimate of its intrinsic value. "Intrinsic value" is based on our judgment of what a prudent and rational business buyer would pay in cash for all of a company in normal markets.

FIRST EAGLE AMUNDI - INCOME BUILDER FUND

Markets were relatively strong in Q4 2022 and for the first month of 2023, taking some of the sting off what was a painful 2022 across most investment assets. By February 2023, global markets relinquished some of their early 2023 gains as inflation concerns once again forced investors to rethink rate expectations. Repressed interest rates helped support valuations for securities with expected cash flows far into the future, contributing to a prolonged period of outperformance by growth stocks at the expense of value stocks focused on the free cash flow in the here and now. The winds changed in 2022 as central banks worldwide sought to tame inflation, however, and the resulting higher discount rates explained much of the drop in securities dependent on future cash flows.

While equities were weak across the board in 2022, lower-valuation stocks turned the tables on growth names; the MSCI World Value Index outperformed its growth analog by more than 2,250 basis points for the year.¹ Geographically, non-US stocks held the edge in 2022, an infrequent occurrence during the post-global financial crisis period. Even still, the price ratio of non-US stocks to US names currently remains at lows not seen in many decades, and we think one ought to be open minded in such an environment, especially given the number of quality businesses that exist outside the US.

Meaningfully positive real interest rates also fueled a selloff across the fixed income complex, with duration-sensitive issues particularly challenged. Corporate bonds fared better, but investment grade and high yield debt still delivered double-digit losses. On the flip side of this bond rout was that many fixed income securities now offer investors what we consider reasonable yields, freeing them from the idea that there is no alternative to equities. Caution does seem warranted in credit, however, especially if the Fed's inflation-fighting fervor tips the economy into recession. Inflation alone would weigh on margins and pressure credit metrics; inflation plus slow economic growth would amplify these effects. Conditions could get truly messy if markets were to lose faith in the Fed's ability to control inflation and the "bond vigilantes" stepped in to drive up rates.

The ongoing war between Ukraine and Russia remained a wildcard and thus another tailwind for the metal. With most financial assets broadly lower for full-year 2022, gold declined only about 28 basis points and ably served its purpose as a potential hedge in a very challenging environment.² Meanwhile, after three straight months of gains, gold fell in February 2023 as it faced headwinds with the US dollar appreciating during the last month of the fiscal year.

With the above as a backdrop, FEAI BF returned -3.62% (USD, AUC share class) from February 28, 2022 to February 28, 2023. Our equity and bond holdings both detracted from performance, as did gold-related securities. Energy and consumer discretionary were the only equity sectors to make a positive contribution to performance during the period, though utilities were flattish; real estate & industrials were the largest detractors. Among individual stocks, the Fund's top contributors included Exxon Mobil, Coca-Cola Femsa, Richemont, Ross Stores and FEMSA. The largest detractors included Jardine Matheson Holdings, Groupe Bruxelles Lambert, Douglas Emmett, Orkla and Boston Properties.

We established 20 new equity positions between end of February 2022 and end of February 2023: 12 based in North America (including consumer discretionary, consumer staples, energy, financials, health care, information technology and materials), 2 in Europe (including consumer staples and health care) and 6 in Asia (including consumer discretionary, financials, health care, information technology and industrials). We also increased our exposure to 12 stocks. We exited 16 equity positions — BAE Systems (was liquidated due to ESG considerations), ComfortDelGro (we became a little concerned about the capital allocation at the holding company level. They were buying companies outside of Singapore and investing in venture capital investments. We exited when shares reflected the downward revision of "intrinsic value" accordingly), Embecta, Euroapi, Travelers and Coca-Cola İçecek (we exited the positions when the share price reached our estimate of the company's intrinsic value), Enterprise Products Partners and Magellan Midstream Partners (we liquidated the positions as a result of portfolio considerations), Hiscox (we recently trimmed and finally fully liquidated on price strength around the Team's updated sense of intrinsic value for the company), MetLife (we liquidated the position as a result of portfolio considerations, for instance, the yield no longer met the desired parameters), Mitsubishi Electric (the company had proven to be less resilient than we thought it was over time; we exited when shares reflected the downward revision of intrinsic value accordingly), Nutrien (we sold when shares reflected our estimate of the company's intrinsic value and other portfolio management considerations), RPM (we exited the position when the share price reached our estimate of the company's intrinsic value and for other portfolio considerations (one of which was that the yield no longer met the desired parameters as the dividend yield dropped), Scotts Miracle-Gro (the company had proven to be less resilient than we thought it was over time; we exited when shares reflected the downward revision of intrinsic value accordingly), UGI (we fully liquidated the position for portfolio considerations) and Union Pacific (we exited because of a change in its dividend yield) — and reduced our holdings in 45 others.

We added new positions in 23 corporate bond issues and increased our exposure to 6 others. We eliminated 21 bonds from the portfolio while trimming the size of 9. In response to top-down concerns, the Global Value team seeks to build resilience in our portfolios from the bottom up, focusing on incremental decisions we expect will in aggregate make portfolio performance better over time. 2 PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING CONVENTIONS

■ PRESENTATION OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements. The financial statements reflect the Net Asset Values ("NAV") as calculated on the last business day of the period based on latest available market prices of the investments.

■ COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF THE SICAV

The combined statement of net assets and combined statement of operations and changes in net assets are expressed in USD and correspond to the total of the statements of net assets and statements of operations and changes in net assets of the individual Sub-Funds, converted in USD at the exchange rates applicable at period-end.

■ VALUATION OF INVESTMENT IN SECURITIES

The value of any cash on hand or on deposit bills and demand notes and accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, cash dividends, interest declared or accrued and not yet received, all of which are deemed to be the full amount thereof, unless in any case the same is unlikely to be paid or received in full, in which case the value thereof is arrived at after making such discount as may be considered appropriate in such case to reflect the true value thereof.

Securities listed on a recognized stock exchange or dealt on any other Regulated Market that operates regularly, is recognized and is open to the public, are valued at their last available closing prices, or, in the event that there should be several such markets, on the basis of their last available closing prices on the main market for the relevant security.

In the event that the last available closing price does not, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the SICAV, truly reflect the fair market value of the relevant securities, the value of such securities is defined by the Board of Directors of the SICAV based on the reasonably foreseeable sales proceeds determined prudently and in good faith.

Securities not listed or traded on a stock exchange or not dealt on another Regulated Market are valued on the basis of the probable sales proceeds determined prudently and in good faith by the Board of Directors of the SICAV.

The liquidating value of futures, forward or options contracts not traded on exchanges or on other Regulated Markets shall mean their net liquidating value determined, pursuant to the policies established by the Board of Directors of the SICAV, on a basis consistently applied for each different variety of contracts.

The liquidating value of futures, forward or options contracts traded on exchanges or on other regulated markets shall be based upon the last available settlement prices of these contracts on exchanges and regulated markets on which the particular futures, forward foreign exchange contracts or options contracts are traded by the Company; provided that if a futures, forward foreign exchange contracts or options contract could not be liquidated on the day with respect to which net assets are being determined, the basis for determining the liquidating value of such contract shall be such value as the Board of Directors of the SICAV may deem fair and reasonable.

The value of money market instruments not listed or dealt in on any stock exchange or any other Regulated Market are valued at their face value with interest accrued.

In case of short term instruments with remaining maturity of less than 90 days the value of the instrument based on the net asset acquisition cost is gradually adjusted to the repurchase price thereof. In the event of material changes in market conditions, the valuation basis of the investment is adjusted to the new market yields.

Interest rate swaps are valued at their market value established by reference to the applicable interest rates curve.

Investments in collective investment schemes are valued on the basis of the last available prices of the units or shares of such collective investment schemes.

All other transferable securities and other permitted assets are valued at fair market value as determined in good faith pursuant to procedures established by the Board of Directors of the SICAV.

■ VALUATION OF FORWARD FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONTRACTS

In alternative to a system that consists to charge directly the Company with the diverse administrative expenses, the Board of Directors of the SICAV has decided to conclude an agreement with Amundi Luxembourg, acting as its Management Company, in order to apply a system of flat fee (hereafter the "Administration Fee") paid to Amundi Luxembourg S.A., charge for it to support the administrative expenses of each Sub-Fund and Classes of Shares of the SICAV.

5 PERFORMANCE FEES

The Investment Manager may receive a performance fee from each class of shares according to the mechanisms detailed in the prospectus dated December 2022.

The calculation of performance fees applies to each concerned share class and on each Net Asset Value calculation date. The calculation is based on the comparison between:

- The Net Asset Value of each relevant share class (before deduction of the performance fee) and
- The reference asset which represents and replicates the Net Asset Value of the relevant share class (before deduction of the performance fee) at the first day of the performance observation period, adjusted by subscriptions/redemptions at each valuation, to which the Reference for Performance fee (as stated for each Sub-Fund and share class) is applied.

Please refer to the prospectus for details of applicable performance fees rates and the Reference for Performance fee.

The rates are set as below:

Classes I, O, X: 0.01%

Other classes: 0.05%

According to the law and the current regulations, no Luxembourg tax is payable on the realised capital appreciation of the assets of the SICAV.

Some income received by the SICAV from sources outside Luxembourg (dividends, interest or appreciation / depreciation) may be subject to non-recoverable withholding tax in the countries of origin of the investments.

The value of the assets represented by units/shares held in other Luxembourg undertakings for collective investment is exempt from the capital tax, provided such units have already been subject to the tax.

8 DIVIDENDS

The Distribution Shares apply the corresponding Sub-Fund's dividend policy (see the relevant Data sheet under Part I) in distributing an annual percentage of the net asset value ("Fixed Dividend") which payment may be scheduled following predetermined frequencies.

The following are the single or double letter suffixes currently in use and which indicate a frequency:

"QD" for quarterly dividend,

"MD" for monthly dividend,

"D" for annual dividend.

The proportion of Fixed Dividend corresponding to a given frequency is as follows :

Frequency distribution	Proportion of Fixed Dividend	Example of a Fixed Dividend amounting 4%
MD - Monthly	1/12 (8,333%)	0,333%
QD - Quarterly	1/4 (25%)	1%
D - Annually	1/1 (100%)	4%

Fixed Dividend may result to have the dividend composed of capital attributable to the Shares, whose amount will be driven by the amount of existing investment incomes and capital gains.

Fixed Dividend will seek to pay out a dividend regardless of the performance of the Shares. As a result, the net asset value of such Shares may fluctuate more than the other Classes of Shares for which it is generally not intended by the Board of Directors to distribute capital, and the potential for future appreciation of such net asset value of such Shares may be eroded.

The dividends payable are recorded in the "Statement of Net Assets" in the caption "other liabilities".

To each category of Distribution Shares corresponds a Fixed Dividend, with exception of the class OHE-QD and IU5-QD that distribute an annual dividend as determined by the Board.

Distribution Shares proposing a monthly or quarterly payment declare interim dividends. Quarterly dividends will be distributed on the last Business Day of February, May, August and November of each financial year. Monthly dividends will be distributed on the last business day of each month.

The Board of Directors will propose to distribute dividends in the form of cash in the relevant Class Currency. The Board of Directors may also decide that dividends be reinvested by the attribution of additional Shares of the same Class and Category of Shares. Such Shares will be issued on the payment date at the NAV per Share of the relevant Class in noncertificated form. Fractional entitlements to registered Shares will be recognized to three decimal places.

Dividends remaining unclaimed five years after the dividend record date will be forfeited and will accrue for the benefit of the relevant Class of Shares of the relevant Sub-Fund.

The payment of dividend remains always subject to the minimum capital requirements to be respected by the Company in accordance with the 2010 Law.

Audit report

To the Shareholders of
FIRST EAGLE AMUNDI

Our opinion

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of FIRST EAGLE AMUNDI (the “Fund”) and of each of its sub-funds as at 28 February 2023, and of the results of their operations and changes in their net assets for the year then ended in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements.

What we have audited

The Fund’s financial statements comprise:

- the securities portfolio as at 28 February 2023;
- the statement of net assets as at 28 February 2023;
- the statement of operations and changes in net assets for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession (Law of 23 July 2016) and with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as adopted for Luxembourg by the “Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier” (CSSF). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF are further described in the “Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d’entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements” section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, including International Independence Standards, issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA Code) as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements. We have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities under those ethical requirements.

Other information

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information stated in the annual report but does not include the financial statements and our audit report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or close any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the "Réviseur d'entreprises agréé" for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an audit report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control;
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund;

- conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our audit report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our audit report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern;
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

● To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

The product has respected all material aspects of the characteristics described in the prospectus.

How did the sustainability indicators perform?

The sustainability indicator used is the ESG score of the Sub-Fund that is measured against the ESG score of the investment universe of the Sub-Fund. Amundi's ESG rating process is based on the "Best-in-class" approach. Ratings adapted to each sector of Sustainable investment means an investment in an economic activity that contributes to an environmental or social objective, provided that the investment does not significantly harm any environmental or social objective and that the investee companies follow good governance practices.

The EU Taxonomy is a classification system laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/852, establishing a list of environmentally sustainable economic activities. That Regulation does not include a list of socially sustainable economic activities. Sustainable investments with an environmental objective might be aligned with the Taxonomy or not.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

activity aim to assess the dynamics in which companies operate. The Amundi ESG rating used to determine the ESG score is an ESG quantitative score translated into seven grades, ranging from A (the best scores in the universe) to G (the worst). At the end of the period (February 28, 2023):

The weighted average ESG rating of the portfolio is: C+

The weighted average ESG rating of the investment universe: D

● ...and compared to previous periods?

The above sustainability indicators were not compared to previous periods as the regulation was not yet in force.

● What were the objectives of the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made and how did the sustainable investment contribute to such objectives?

The objectives of the sustainable investments were (and are) to invest in investee companies that seek to meet two criteria:

1) follow best environmental and social practices; and

2) avoid making products or providing services that harm the environment and society. In order for the investee company to be deemed to contribute to the above objective it had to be a “best performer” within its sector of activity on at least one of its material environmental or social factors. The definition of “best performer” relies on Amundi’s proprietary ESG methodology which aims to measure the ESG performance of an investee company. In order to be considered a “best performer”, an investee company must perform with the best top three rating (A, B or C, out of a rating scale going from A to G) within its sector on at least one material environmental or social factor. Material environmental and social factors are identified at a sector level. The identification of material factors is based on Amundi’s ESG analysis framework which combines extra financial data and qualitative analysis of associated sector and sustainability themes. Factors identified as material result in a contribution of more than 10% to the overall ESG score. For the energy sector for example, material factors are: emissions and energy, biodiversity and pollution, health and security, local communities and human rights. For a more complete overview of sectors and factors, please refer to the Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement available at www.amundi.lu. To contribute to the above objectives, the investee company should not have significant exposure to activities (e.g. tobacco, weapons, gambling, coal, aviation, meat production, fertilizer and pesticide manufacturing, single-use plastic production) not compatible with such criteria.

The sustainable nature of an investment is assessed at investee company level.

How did the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made not cause significant harm to any environmental or social sustainable investment objective?

To ensure sustainable investments do no significant harm (“DNSH”), Amundi utilized (and currently utilizes) two filters:

1.) The first DNSH test filter relies on monitoring the mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts indicators in Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS where robust data is available (e.g. GHG intensity of investee companies) via a combination of indicators (e.g. carbon intensity) and specific thresholds or rules (e.g. that the investee company’s carbon intensity does not belong to the last decile of the sector). Amundi already considers specific Principle Adverse Impacts within its exclusion policy as part of Amundi’s Responsible Investment Policy. These exclusions, which apply on the top of the tests detailed above, cover the following topics: exclusions on controversial weapons, Violations of UN Global Compact principles, coal and tobacco.

2.) Beyond the specific sustainability factors covered in the first filter, Amundi has defined a second filter, which does not take the mandatory Principal Adverse Impact indicators above into account, in order to verify that the company does not badly perform from an overall environmental or social standpoint compared to other companies within its sector which corresponds to an environmental or social score superior or equal to E using Amundi’s ESG rating.

How were the indicators for adverse impacts on sustainability factors taken into account?

The indicators for adverse impacts have been taken into account as detailed in the first DNSH filter above:

The first DNSH filter relies on monitoring of mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts indicators in Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS where robust data is available via the combination of following indicators and specific thresholds or rules:

- Have a CO2 intensity which does not belong to the last decile compared to other companies within its sector (only applies to high intensity sectors), and
- Have a Board of Directors’ diversity which does not belong to the last decile compared to other companies within its sector, and
- Be cleared of any controversy in relation to work conditions and human rights.
- Be cleared of any controversy in relation to biodiversity and pollution

Amundi already considers specific Principle Adverse Impacts within its exclusion policy as part of Amundi’s Responsible Investment Policy. These exclusions, which apply on the top of the tests detailed above, cover the following topics: exclusions on controversial weapons, Violations of UN Global Compact principles, coal and tobacco.

Principal adverse impacts are the most significant negative impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors relating to environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

— — — Were sustainable investments aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights? Details:

Yes, the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights are integrated into our ESG scoring methodology. Our proprietary ESG rating tool assesses issuers using available data from our data providers. For example the model has a dedicated criteria called “Community Involvement & Human Rights” which is applied to all sectors in addition to other human rights linked criteria including socially responsible supply chains, working conditions, and labor relations. Furthermore, we conduct controversy monitoring on a, at minimum, quarterly basis which includes companies identified for human rights violations. When controversies arise, analysts will evaluate the situation and apply a score to the controversy (using our proprietary scoring methodology) and determine the best course of action. Controversy scores are updated quarterly to track the trend and remediation efforts.

How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

The Sub-Fund considers all the mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts as per Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS applying to the Sub-Fund’s strategy and relies on a combination of exclusion policies (normative and sectorial), ESG rating integration into the investment process, engagement and voting approaches and controversies monitoring:

- Exclusion: Amundi has defined normative, activity-based and sector-based exclusion rules covering some of the key adverse sustainability indicators listed by the Disclosure Regulation.
- ESG factors integration: Amundi has adopted minimum ESG integration standards applied by default to its actively managed open-ended funds (exclusion of G rated issuers and better weighted average ESG score higher than the applicable benchmark). The 38 criteria used in Amundi’s ESG rating approach were also designed to consider key impacts on sustainability factors, as well as quality of the mitigation undertaken are also considered in that respect.
- Engagement: Engagement is a continuous and purpose driven process aimed at influencing the activities or behaviour of investee companies. The aim of engagement activities can fall into two categories: to engage an issuer to improve the way it integrates the environmental and social dimension or to engage an issuer to improve its impact on environmental, social, and human rights-related or other sustainability matters that are material to society and the global economy.

- Voting: Amundi’s voting policy responds to a holistic analysis of all the long-term issues that may influence value creation, including material ESG issues. For more information please refer to Amundi’s Voting Policy* .

- Controversies monitoring: Amundi has developed a controversy tracking system that relies on three external data providers to systematically track controversies and their level of severity. This quantitative approach is then enriched with an in-depth assessment of each severe controversy, led by ESG analysts and the periodic review of its evolution. This approach applies to all of Amundi’s funds.

For any indication on how mandatory Principal Adverse Impact indicators are used, please refer to the Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement available at www.amundi.lu

Enabling activities directly enable other activities to make a substantial contribution to an environmental objective.

Transitional activities are activities for which low-carbon alternatives are not yet available and among others have greenhouse gas emission levels corresponding to the best performance.

To what extent were the sustainable investments with an environmental objective aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

The Sub-Fund currently has no minimum commitment to sustainable investments with an environmental objective aligned with the EU Taxonomy.

Did the financial product invest in fossil gas and/or nuclear energy related activities complying with the EU Taxonomy¹?

- Yes:
 - In fossil gas
 - In nuclear energy
- No

The two graphs below show in green the minimum percentage of investments that are aligned with the EU Taxonomy. As there is no appropriate methodology to determine the Taxonomy-alignment of sovereign bonds, the first graph shows the Taxonomy alignment in relation to all the investments of the financial product including sovereign bonds, while the second graph shows the Taxonomy alignment only in relation to the investments of the financial product other than sovereign bonds.*

 For the purpose of these graphs, 'sovereign bonds' consist of all sovereign exposures*

Taxonomy-aligned activities are expressed as a share of:

- turnover reflecting the share of revenue from green activities of investee companies.
- capital expenditure (CapEx) showing the green investments made by investee companies, e.g. for a transition to a green economy.
- operational expenditure (OpEx) reflecting green operational activities of investee companies.

are sustainable investments with an environmental objective that do not take into account the criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities under Regulation (EU) 2020/852.

¹ Fossil gas and/or nuclear related activities will only comply with the EU Taxonomy where they contribute to limiting climate change ("climate change mitigation") and do not significantly harm any EU Taxonomy objective. The full criteria for fossil gas and nuclear energy economic activities that comply with the EU Taxonomy are laid down in Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2022/1214.

● What was the share of investments made in transitional and enabling activities?

The Sub-Fund has no minimum proportion of investment in transitional or enabling activities.

● How did the percentage of investments that were aligned with the EU Taxonomy compare with previous reference periods?

Not applicable - there was not a previous periodic report.

What was the share of sustainable investments with an environmental objective not aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

41.07%

What was the share of socially sustainable investments?

Not applicable

What investments were included under “other”, what was their purpose and were there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

Included in “#2 Other” are cash and instruments for the purpose of liquidity and portfolio risk management. It may also include ESG unrated securities for which data needed for the measurement of attainment of environmental or social characteristics is not available.

What actions have been taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics during the reference period?

Sustainability indicators are continuously made available in the portfolio management system allowing the portfolio managers to assess the impact of their investment decisions. These indicators are embedded within Amundi’s control framework, with responsibilities spread between the first level of controls performed by the Investment teams themselves and the second level of controls performed by the Amundi Risk teams, who monitor compliance with environmental or social characteristics promoted by the fund on an ongoing basis.

Moreover, Amundi’s Responsible Investment Policy sets out an active approach to engagement that promotes dialogue with investee companies including those in the portfolio of this product. AMUNDI’s Annual Engagement Report, available on <https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation>, provides detailed reporting on this engagement and its results.
