The aim and investment policy of the fund

Fondita Global Megatrends is an equity fund that invests globally in companies whose activities make use of:

1. growing demand to protect the environment
2. needs stemming from demographic changes, and
3. prospects for growth in the technology sector

The fund has no geographical nor market value limitations regarding the companies it invests in. The objective of the fund's investment activities is to attain best increase in value possible in the long run through diversifying the assets in compliance with the law concerning investment funds and with the rules of the fund.

The fund's investments are focused, and consist of about 40 holdings. The fund does not use derivative instruments.

The fund's investment philosophy is based on stock-picking. The fund management is active and the fund does not have an official benchmark.

Companies with a strong competitive position, a promising outlook, a good profitability, a strong balance and preferably a visible owner, are chosen into the portfolio. The investments are long-term, and are made in both growth- and value companies.

The goal of the fund is to promote environmental qualities as well as social responsibility in accordance with Article 8 in EU:s SFDR classification.

Fund units may be subscribed (bought) and redeemed (sold) at the Fund Company on every banking day in general.

The investor can choose between return units and growth units. Return is yearly paid to return unit holders.

When making the investment decision, the investor is to be aware of that the value of the fund can vary significantly.

The fund is nominated in euro but because the fund invests in companies within other currency regions the fund value is affected by currency changes. Any income received from the fund's investments, such as dividends, is reinvested.

The recommended minimum investment horizon is 7 years.

Risk and Reward Profile

Lower risk Higher risk

Typically lower reward Typically higher reward

The relation between risk and return is shown in the picture above.

A high number means that the fund has a higher risk and that the value of the fund can vary greatly. This means that both return and risk potential is greater. A lower number means less risk.

The lowest category of risk does not, however, mean that the investment is risk free.

Based on the current risk-reward profile of the fund, it's not possible to foresee any future risk-reward profile.

The risk indicator doesn't necessarily take the following into consideration: noticeable change in the value of money, political incidents or other unexpected events.

The fund is geographically well diversified. Therefore the fund is not subject to any major country risk.

Because the fund invests in companies listed in other currencies than euro, currency changes affect the value of the fund.

An investor should be aware of a liquidity risk that may occur if the fund cannot sell its equities within a reasonable time. This may lead to delays in payments of redemptions.

Unchanged level of risk isn't guaranteed. The risk category may change in the future.

The risk category of the fund is 6, based on the fluctuations of the fund units over the last 5 years. This means that the fluctuations are expected to be significant.
