Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Objectives and Investment Policy

- The Portfolio seeks to provide income and capital growth over the longer term.
- The Portfolio will mostly invest in fixed-income securities of any type of emerging country issuer. Where such issuers are companies they may either be based in or earn most of their profits or revenues from emerging markets. The Portfolio may also invest in fixed income securities where the issuer may be based anywhere in the world.
- The Portfolio will not invest more than one-third of its assets in other securities and instruments. Additionally, it will not invest more than 25% in convertibles (securities that can be converted into other types of securities). The Portfolio may, under certain circumstances, have limited holdings in shares and similar instruments.
- The Portfolio may use derivatives for efficient portfolio management purposes, to help manage risks and for investment purposes. A derivative instrument is a contract between two or more parties whose value depends on the rise and fall of the underlying asset.
- Shares in the Portfolio may be redeemed daily on demand.
- The Portfolio's reference benchmark is the JPM EMBI Global Diversified Index, consideration may be given to this reference benchmark when managing the Portfolio. However you should be aware that the Portfolio may not be managed in accordance with such reference benchmark and returns may deviate materially from the performance of the specified reference benchmark.
- Income (net of expenses) is distributed on a monthly basis.
- The Portfolio currency is USD. The share class currency is USD.
- For full investment objective and policy details see the Prospectus.

Risk and Reward Profile

This risk profile is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Portfolio. The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time. The lowest category does not mean risk free. It is possible that a portfolio stated to have a lower risk profile may in fact fall in value more than a portfolio with a higher risk profile.

The Portfolio is in category 5 as it mostly invests in emerging market fixed income securities which will typically experience higher levels of price fluctuations than such securities in developed markets.

The capital is not guaranteed.

- Market risk - the value of assets in the Portfolio is typically dictated by a number of factors, including the confidence levels of the market in which they are traded.
- Operational risk - material losses to the Portfolio may arise as a result of human error, system and/or process failures, inadequate procedures or controls.
- Liquidity risk - the Portfolio may not always find another party willing to purchase an asset that the Portfolio wants to sell which could impact the Portfolio's ability to meet redemption requests on demand.

- Exchange rate risk - changes in exchange rates may reduce or increase the returns an investor might expect to receive independent of the performance of such assets. If applicable, investment techniques used to attempt to reduce the risk of currency movements (hedging), may not be effective. Hedging also involves additional risks associated with derivatives.
- Custodian risk - insolvency, breaches of duty of care or misconduct of a custodian or sub-custodian responsible for the safekeeping of the Portfolio's assets can result in loss to the Portfolio.
- Interest rate risk - when interest rates rise, bond prices fall, reflecting the ability of investors to obtain a more attractive rate of interest on their money elsewhere. Bond prices are therefore subject to movements in interest rates which may move for a number of reasons, political as well as economic.
- Credit risk - The failure of a counterparty or an issuer of a financial asset held within the Portfolio to meet its payment obligations will have a negative impact on the Portfolio.
- Derivatives risk - certain derivatives may result in losses greater than the amount originally invested.
- Counterparty risk - a party that the Portfolio transacts with may fail to meet its obligations which could cause losses.
- Emerging markets risk - emerging markets are likely to bear higher risk due to lower liquidity and possible lack of adequate financial, legal, social, political and economic structures, protection and stability as well as uncertain tax positions.

For more information about charges, please refer to the Fund's Prospectus, section entitled "Fees and Expenses" and the relevant supplement for the Portfolio.

Where applicable, past performance has been calculated in USD and is expressed as a percentage change of the Portfolio's Net Asset Value at each year end (net of all fees). Where past performance is not shown there is insufficient data to provide a useful indication of past performance.

Switching between Portfolios: Shares are available in other share classes and as described under "Description of Share Classes" in the Prospectus and in other currencies as may be specified in the relevant supplement for the Portfolio. Shareholders may apply for their shares in any share class of any Portfolio to be converted into any share class of another Portfolio, subject to the conditions set out in the Fund's Prospectus (charges may apply).
