Objectives and Investment Policy

FUND. The Rize Digital Payments Economy UCITS ETF (the "Fund") is a passively managed exchange traded fund ("ETF") that aims to replicate the performance of the Foxyberry Digital Payments Economy USD Net Total Return Index (the "Index").

INDEX. The objective of the Index is to provide exposure to global publicly-traded companies that are building the frictionless digital payments economy of the tomorrow. These companies include card payment networks, payment processors, payment infrastructure providers, payment services and solutions providers and digital/crypto currency pioneers that are accelerating the structural transition from traditional cash payments to the speed and convenience of digital wallets, digital payments and digital currencies. The Index does not include digital/crypto currencies or assets themselves, companies involved in bitcoin mining or companies providing the "picks and shovels" that enable the mining of bitcoin or other digital/crypto currencies. However, the Index does include companies which provide digital/crypto currency exchange platforms, wallet services, payments and infrastructure solutions and blockchain-focused payment services. The Index shall be rebalanced on a semi-annual basis. Please refer to the "The Index" section of the Fund Supplement for further detail.

TRACKING METHOD. The Fund will primarily invest in the companies contained in the Index in similar proportions to their weightings in the Index. The Fund may also invest in (1) Depositary receipts relating to the companies contained in the Index and (2) financial derivative instruments ("FDIs") which are investments the prices of which are based on the companies contained in the Index.

DIVIDEND POLICY. This Share Class does not intend to pay dividends. Any income which may result from the Fund's investments will be re-invested into the Fund.

DEALING. Shares in this Share Class (the "Shares") are denominated in USD and can be bought and sold on stock exchanges by ordinary investors using an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker). In normal circumstances, only Authorised Participants may buy and sell Shares directly with the ICAV. Authorised Participants may redeem their Shares on demand in accordance with the "Dealing Timetable" published on <http://www.rizeetf.com>

Risk and Reward Profile

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

The Fund is rated 7 due to the nature of its investments and its risks. The rating is calculated based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the Fund's future risk profile. The risk category may shift over time. The lowest category on the above scale does not mean "risk free".

The Fund may be subject to the risks associated with financial technology companies and other technologies associated with digital and internet-based payments and digital currency, including the risks to companies operating in the industry arising from: fierce domestic and international competition and the potential for rapidly changing technologies and the risk of obsolescence of existing products, leading to reduced revenues and/or profit margins for individual companies and/or companies operating in particular segments; the loss of patent, copyright and trademark protections; evolving industry standards; unsophisticated and/or evolving or divergent regulatory frameworks which may become less favourable or even prohibitive in one or more countries over time and which may impede the adoption of digital payment products and services; and cybersecurity and associated risks in relation to users' personal data and other company information and intellectual property.

Some companies may be smaller and less experienced companies, with limited product lines, markets or financial resources and fewer experienced management or marketing personnel. They may experience extreme price and volume fluctuations that are often unrelated to their operating performance.

The Index is typically comprised of a mix micro, small, mid, and large capitalisation companies. Micro and small capitalisation companies may be more vulnerable to adverse business or economic events than larger, more established companies and may underperform other segments of the market or the equity market as a whole. Securities of micro and small capitalisation companies generally trade in lower volumes, are less liquid and are often more vulnerable to market volatility and greater and more unpredictable price changes than larger capitalisation stocks or the stock market as a whole.

Other: (1) Third party service providers (such as the ICAV's depositary) may go bankrupt and fail to pay money due to the Fund or return property belonging to the Fund. (2) If the Index provider stops calculating the Index or if the Fund's license to replicate the Index is terminated, the Fund may have to be closed. (3) It may not always be possible to buy and sell the Fund's Shares on a stock exchange or at prices closely reflecting the Net Asset Value. (4) There is no capital guarantee or protection on the value of the Fund and investors can lose all the capital invested in the Fund. (5) Please refer to the "Risk Factors" section of the ICAV's Prospectus and the Fund Supplement.
