The management company is Franklin Templeton International Services S.à r.l.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Templeton Growth (Euro) Fund (the "Fund") aims to increase the value of its investments over the medium to long term.

The Fund invests mainly in:

- equity and equity-related securities issued by companies of any size located in any country, including emerging markets

The investment team uses in-depth analysis to select individual equity securities that it believes are undervalued, based on such factors as their expected long-term earnings and the value of their business assets.

You may request the sale of your shares on any Luxembourg business day. For the distribution share class shown in this document, dividend income is distributed to shareholders.

For further information on the Objectives and Investment Policy of the Fund, please refer to the section "Fund Information, Objectives and Investment Policies" of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.

The benchmark of the Fund is the MSCI World Index. The benchmark is indicated for information purposes only, and the Fund manager does not intend to track it. The Fund can deviate from this benchmark.

Terms to Understand

Equity securities: Securities that represent an ownership stake in a company.

Emerging markets: Countries whose economy, stock market, political situation and regulatory framework are not fully developed.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does this indicator mean and what are its limits?

This indicator is designed to provide you with a measure of the price movement of this share class based on historical behavior.

Historical data may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean risk free.

Why is the Fund in this specific category?

The Fund invests mainly in equity and equity-related securities of companies around the world. Such securities have historically been subject to significant price movements that may occur suddenly due to market or company-specific factors. As a result, the performance of the Fund can fluctuate significantly over relatively short time periods.

Risks materially relevant not adequately captured by the indicator:

Currency risk: the risk of loss arising from exchange-rate fluctuations or due to exchange control regulations.

Emerging markets risk: the risk related to investing in countries that have less developed political, economic, legal and regulatory systems, and that may be impacted by political/economic instability, lack of liquidity or transparency, or safekeeping issues.

Liquidity risk: the risk that arises when adverse market conditions affect the ability to sell assets when necessary. Reduced liquidity may have a negative impact on the price of the assets.

Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect risk: the Fund may suffer difficulties or delays in enforcing its rights in China A-shares, including title and assurance of ownership, given that the securities regimes and legal systems of the Shanghai and Hong Kong markets differ significantly.

For a full discussion of all the risks applicable to this Fund, please refer to the "Risk Considerations" section of the current prospectus of Franklin Templeton Investment Funds.
